Organizational Profile

Our Mission

Started in 2009, REST exists to expand pathways to freedom, safety and hope in order to end sex trafficking. Everyone deserves to be loved, everyone deserves a life free from exploitation. This belief, rooted in the inherent dignity of every person, guides REST. It motivates us to do what it takes to unlock doors to freedom.

What We Do

REST offers holistic, survivor-centered services, seeking to walk alongside survivors of sex trafficking no matter where they are in their healing journey. Through this, we aim to offer support for survivors to identify and accomplish goals that transition them from entry to stabilization to independence.
